

Do You Like Classic Skiing?

Then Come with Us to the König Ludwig Lauf in Bavaria

Date: February 4th, 2021 to February 7th, 2021

The König Ludwig Lauf is a 50-kilometer classic cross country race (and skating on Saturday) that takes you along the grounds of the Linderhoff Castle, Louis II of Bavaria's preferred home, and today known the world over. Every year during the first weekend in February, at least 5,000 classic cross-country ski racers come to this famous Oberammergau region for the fifth stage of the Worldloppet. On Saturday there will be skating races from 21 to 50 kilometers long. On Sunday, the classic race will be 50-kilometers long, but there will also be a 21-kilometer classic race.

The departure takes place in a little village called Ettal, which is only five kilometers from the finish line in Oberammergau village. Expect 1,200 skating racers on Saturday and over 5,000 classic racers on Sunday. Your hotel is ideally situated at only two minutes from the finish line right in the center of town and very close to the place where you have to go to pick up your race packet and bib. Your transportation will take you directly to the start line, either by bus or by private car.

You can come any way you want to Oberammergau. Once there you will be able to settle down in your hotel room and, of course, there is dinner.

A hearty breakfast and then a free day for whatever you want to do. You can discover a parts of the course and try different kick waxes. Then you will to have a small lunch in one of the numerous restaurants in the village. At the afternoon, go to the large hall where you will obtain your race packets and bibs. Actually, you will only have to walk a little ways because your hotel is very close to the large hall. Then, you can either go to the wellness center or work on your skis or take your time exploring Oberammergau village. Diner.

Saturday, February 6th, 2021

An early breakfast and then a 21 or 50 kilometer skating race, if you have signed up for it. If not, then you can do whatever you want, but I suggest some short training directly from the hotel with the skis you are going to use for the race on Sunday. You should now think about seriously waxing your skis. If you want a professional to do that, you can pay for waxing, but you have to make a reservation. Now is the time to eat and eat lots.

Sunday, February 7th, 2021

You will start the 50 kilometer race at 9:00 in the morning. You are responsible for getting to the starting stadium. There will be bus transfers to go to the start in Etal (about 15 minutes). You only need a 3 minutes walk after the race to go back to your hotel, you can still use the wellness center to take a shower after the race. Then it is time to leave and you are on your own.
